Dear Mr. Whitney:

Thank you most kindly for your letter of 10
November.

I enjoyed the occasion very much and appreciate the opportunity given me to visit the Club.

I shall be looking forward to receiving the copies of the Overseas Press Bulletin which you were so good to arrange for me.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Signed

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I am writing to express my personal satisfaction that you were able to be with us on Friday evening at the Moscow Correspondents Reunion.

I am asking our Information Committee to see that you receive regularly copies of the Overseas Press Bulletin which I think you will find is the best publication in existence covering the activities and problems of American Foreign Correspondents.

Cordially,

Thomas P. Whitney
President.
